About me

I'm Shervonne Kitto—a NJ-based beauty creator and pro makeup artist. My content feels like a FaceTime call with your bestie: warm, honest, and easy to understand. I break down beauty products like I'm explaining them to a 5-year-old, so my audience trusts every recommendation. I move fast on trends to stay visible, and I create SEO-backed content that ranks in search—so your brand gets found, seen, and loved long after it's posted.
